Mr. Seward, under date of Sept. 30, 1864, writes to General Canby, in command of the Department of the Gulf, for the full particulars concerning the alleged entrance of the Mexican tionersal Cortinas, with an armed force into the territory of Trans, and approve of General Cauby's reported notice to Cortinas that such an entrance was an act of hostility towards the United States, which would continue to of Serve its neutrality.

In a letter dated April 6th, 1864, directed to Mr. Godfrey frepresenting the French Government at Washinston), Mr. Seward recaptivalates the into mation conveyed by Mr. Godfrey in reference to the emigration of Americans to Sonora and the designs of the French Emperor in Mexico, in aluding to which the Secretary of State says:

"While I appreciate the frankness and the good will which the Emperor's Government manifests in thus communicating its views and purposes on the subject mentioned, it nevertheless temains my duty to the constitutional Government has long recognized, and attill does continue to recognize, the Constitutional Government of the United States of Mexico as the sovereign authority in that country, and the President, Benito Justez, as its chief. This government at the same time, equally recognizes the condition of war existing in Mexico, between that country and France. We maintain absolute neutrality between the belierents, and we do not assume to judge, much less to judge in advance, of the effect of the war upon titles or estates. We have no knowledge of such an emigration from Calionia to Sonora as you have described in your note; but if such an emigration has taken place, those persons who thus emigrate will, of course, be regarded as suljecting themselves to the authority and always which the right sof citizens of Mexico are governed, Major General Herron, under date of Sept 24, "et writes to his Department Commander that there is no truth in the report that men, arms and ammunition has decomed the R

THE FENIANS.

There were no new developments in the crusale against the Fenians. The examination of the prisoners stood fixed for the 28d. James Murphy, one of the men arrested at Dublin, who described himself as a citizen of Boston, and protested against his as a clinzed of Rocton, and protested against his arrest, had been set at liberty, "after," says the FREEMAN, "an interview between the American Consul and the authorities." It is stated that Murphy is connected with the War Department, at Washington, but no explanation is given of his connection with the suppressed Irish People.

As the 88th Regiment was on parade in Cork Barracks, the sergeant major was called into the guardroom and shown a roll-book of member's names, taken from an arrested Fenian. The sergeant major admitted that one of the signatures was his, and was at once taken into custody. A private soldier belonging to the same regiment was also arrested. caused great excitement in Cork, even leading, it is supposed, to a run on a Cork banker.

A Fenian demonstration was rather expected at the Limerick races, and the military were held in readiness, but all passed off quietly.
